CINA ANNUAL MEETING

Meet your Board via Zoom on April 13, 2021 at 6 PM

Our annual meeting will be a forty minute Zoom meeting and will include presentations from your Board, featured below. We will also have a speaker, Michael Frederick who is St. Petersburg Neighborhood Transportation Manager. Michael will present the latest Traffic Circle Plan. CINA will send out an email blast with instructions on how to join our annual Board Meeting. The meeting link will also be posted on the Causeway Isles Facebook page. If you are not already on our email list, let us know at Admin@causewayisles.com. If you have questions for the presenters during the meeting, submit them from the Zoom platform.

Bruce Erbeck: President

I've Lived in Causeway Isles for just over 4 years now. My wife is Christy, we love boating, fishing, golf and travel. In my past, I enlisted in the US Navy, was a National champion soccer coach, owned a weekly newspaper, owned a power sports dealership, and had various sales manager jobs along the way. Currently, I am self-employed with ReMax Metro as a realtor and love living in Causeway Isles.

Ann Gessen: Vice President

Ed Gessen and I moved into Causeway Isles in October 2016. Although it has already been over four years, we still feel like we have died and gone to heaven. It is wonderful to reside in this idyllic place. We love being outdoors and on the water. We also were avid skiers. We love art and are appreciative of all that our community has to offer. I enjoy reading and am happy to be part of our neighborhood book club. Previously, we lived in Los Angeles for 40 years where we raised our two children Bree and Chad who still reside in California. I worked in the technology industry for thirty-five years and marvel at the changes to an industry that did not include the Internet when I started.

Deb Schum: Secretary

My husband, Joe, and I have lived in Causeway Isles since May 2019. We moved out for about 9 months while we renovated the house and are so happy to be moved back and settled in for good. I am a client executive for VMware, a software company based in CA. I manage six of VMware's largest clients in the Tampa area. Joe is the founder of Soul Patch Hippo: Success Coaching which works with corporations and individuals that are looking to make a shift. When we are not chasing after Walter (mutt extraordinaire) we enjoy outdoor activities including cycling, boating, and kayaking. We also like to cook because it gives us an excuse to raid the wine cellar.

Jim Richards: Treasurer

I have lived in Causeway Isles since January 2017, just over four years now having originally moved to Florida from Massachusetts in December 2008. I live here with my girlfriend Christy. I am a CPA in both Massachusetts & Florida, but no longer practice. I am currently the owner of WatersEdge Mortgage, which is going on nine years now. I am the father of two adult children, one of which, Morgan, has a home in Causeway Isles as well where she lives with her boyfriend Jeremy. If you are ever looking for Christy & me, we are either boating or at a local beach bar with friends enjoying music and a drink.

President's Message

Happy Spring CINA Neighbors!

I hope this 2021 Spring letter finds you and your whole family happy and healthy!

We accomplished so much in 2020 despite the Pandemic (social distance boat parade, doggie Halloween Parade down 3rd St., and a Band on the Land Fall Social) and we have some big plans for 2021.

In April, we are holding our Annual Meeting on Tuesday, April 13th at 6PM via a Zoom call. The link to the call is posted on our Facebook Page, CINA Web page, was handed out door-to-door, and is also mentioned elsewhere in this newsletter. The Board has been holding meetings on a regular basis on Zoom and hope to conclude our Zoom meetings and return to face-to-face meetings in May or June 2021.

Also, in April the CINA & YCE Boat Clubs are holding a Spring Boat Parade. Please see the Boat Club page further back in the newsletter. This event was very well attended (by boat and on land) last year and hopefully we can continue to grow this annual event to show unity between our two neighborhoods.

We are planning a Spring Social at Caddy's on the Beach in Treasure Island on Wednesday, May 12th. This will be a sunset beach party that will allow us to be outdoors, social distance per your comfort level, as well as offering folks a cocktail or soda while catching a beautiful sunset. It will have light appetizers, but dinner can be ordered at an additional charge. We have a special cabana area reserved for CINA from 6-10pm.

On a topic that has been highly charged online lately: The traffic calming circles... It is no secret that we continue to have a speeding problem on 79th St., with most of the culprits from Yacht Club Estates. We are not pointing fingers; it's just a simple fact that the further you drive into Causeway Isles people turn to their homes on 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.. and therefore, our neighborhood drivers are greatly reduced by each block. Conversely, 100% of the residents of Yacht Club Estates must drive through our neighborhood to get in and out of the area. We must walk a very narrow path here in that we are all one community, but we have a common challenge. This challenge has been looked at via the City of St. Pete and with many solutions discussed (stop signs, rolling speed bumps, regular speed bumps, increased police presence). The traffic engineers have determined that traffic calming circles are the best solution.

The traffic calming circles will be a topic of discussion with Michael Frederick of The City of St. Pete who will be holding a PowerPoint presentation at our Annual CINA meeting. Again, this event will be held via ZOOM, Tuesday, April 13th at 6pm. Please attend the ZOOM call if you can and listen in from the experts as to our solutions to the speeding challenges.

Feel free to reach out to me anytime with questions or comments - and thank you for your support of our Association!

To greater success,
Captain Bruce Erbeck
President, Causeway Isles Neighborhood Association

LOOK WHO'S PRETTY

Causeway Isles Beautification Award Winner - Spring 2021

Congratulations go out to Michael and Denise McFarlin of 7931 3rd Avenue S for winning the latest "Looks Who's Pretty" CINA Beautification award. Mike, an insurance agent, and Denise, mother of two, relocated to Causeway Isles from Colorado a year ago, New Years Eve. And they certainly had something to celebrate! They found their new dream home, totally remodeled, and ready for the new owners to move in. The renovation transformed the previous 2 bedroom, one bath, 1300 square foot cottage, into a 2000+ square foot, 3 bedrooms, plus office, plus 2 ½ bath masterpiece. The remodeling was completed by their next door neighbor, Mr. Andrew Hunsicker of ASH Developers. Everything was redone inside, from the ground up, and the outside features a rear deck, boat dock and lift, pool, and a fabulous outdoor kitchen, all surrounded by stonework and landscaping. The new front entrance and circle driveway welcome all guests. The home was featured on HGTV's "Beachfront Bargain Hunt Renovations" about a year ago. Mike grew up in St Petersburg, and met Denise at the University of Florida in 1979. He loves the water, fishing, and boating while Denise is a fitness buff and enjoys bicycling, tennis, pickleball, and the Peloton. She also likes to relax with a good book and enjoy their Boca Ciega ICW view! They both like to hike and camp as well. When asked why they chose to live in Causeway Isles, the answer was simply "Isn't it obvious"????!!!! Congrats to Mike and Denise, and their rescue dog Finley!

Do you want to nominate your neighbor or yourself for the CINA Beautification Award? Have you noticed new paint or landscaping that enhances the beauty of our neighborhood? Don't think that a house must be completely made over to receive the award. Please send your nominations to edgessen@gmail.com, or call at (310) 600-1007. If your nominee is selected, you will receive a $25 Home Depot gift card (or CINA annual membership if you are not already a member). Winners receive a $50 gift card (or CINA annual membership if they are not already a member). So keep your eyes open for "Who's Pretty"!!!!

CINA SPRING SOCIAL AT CADDY'S

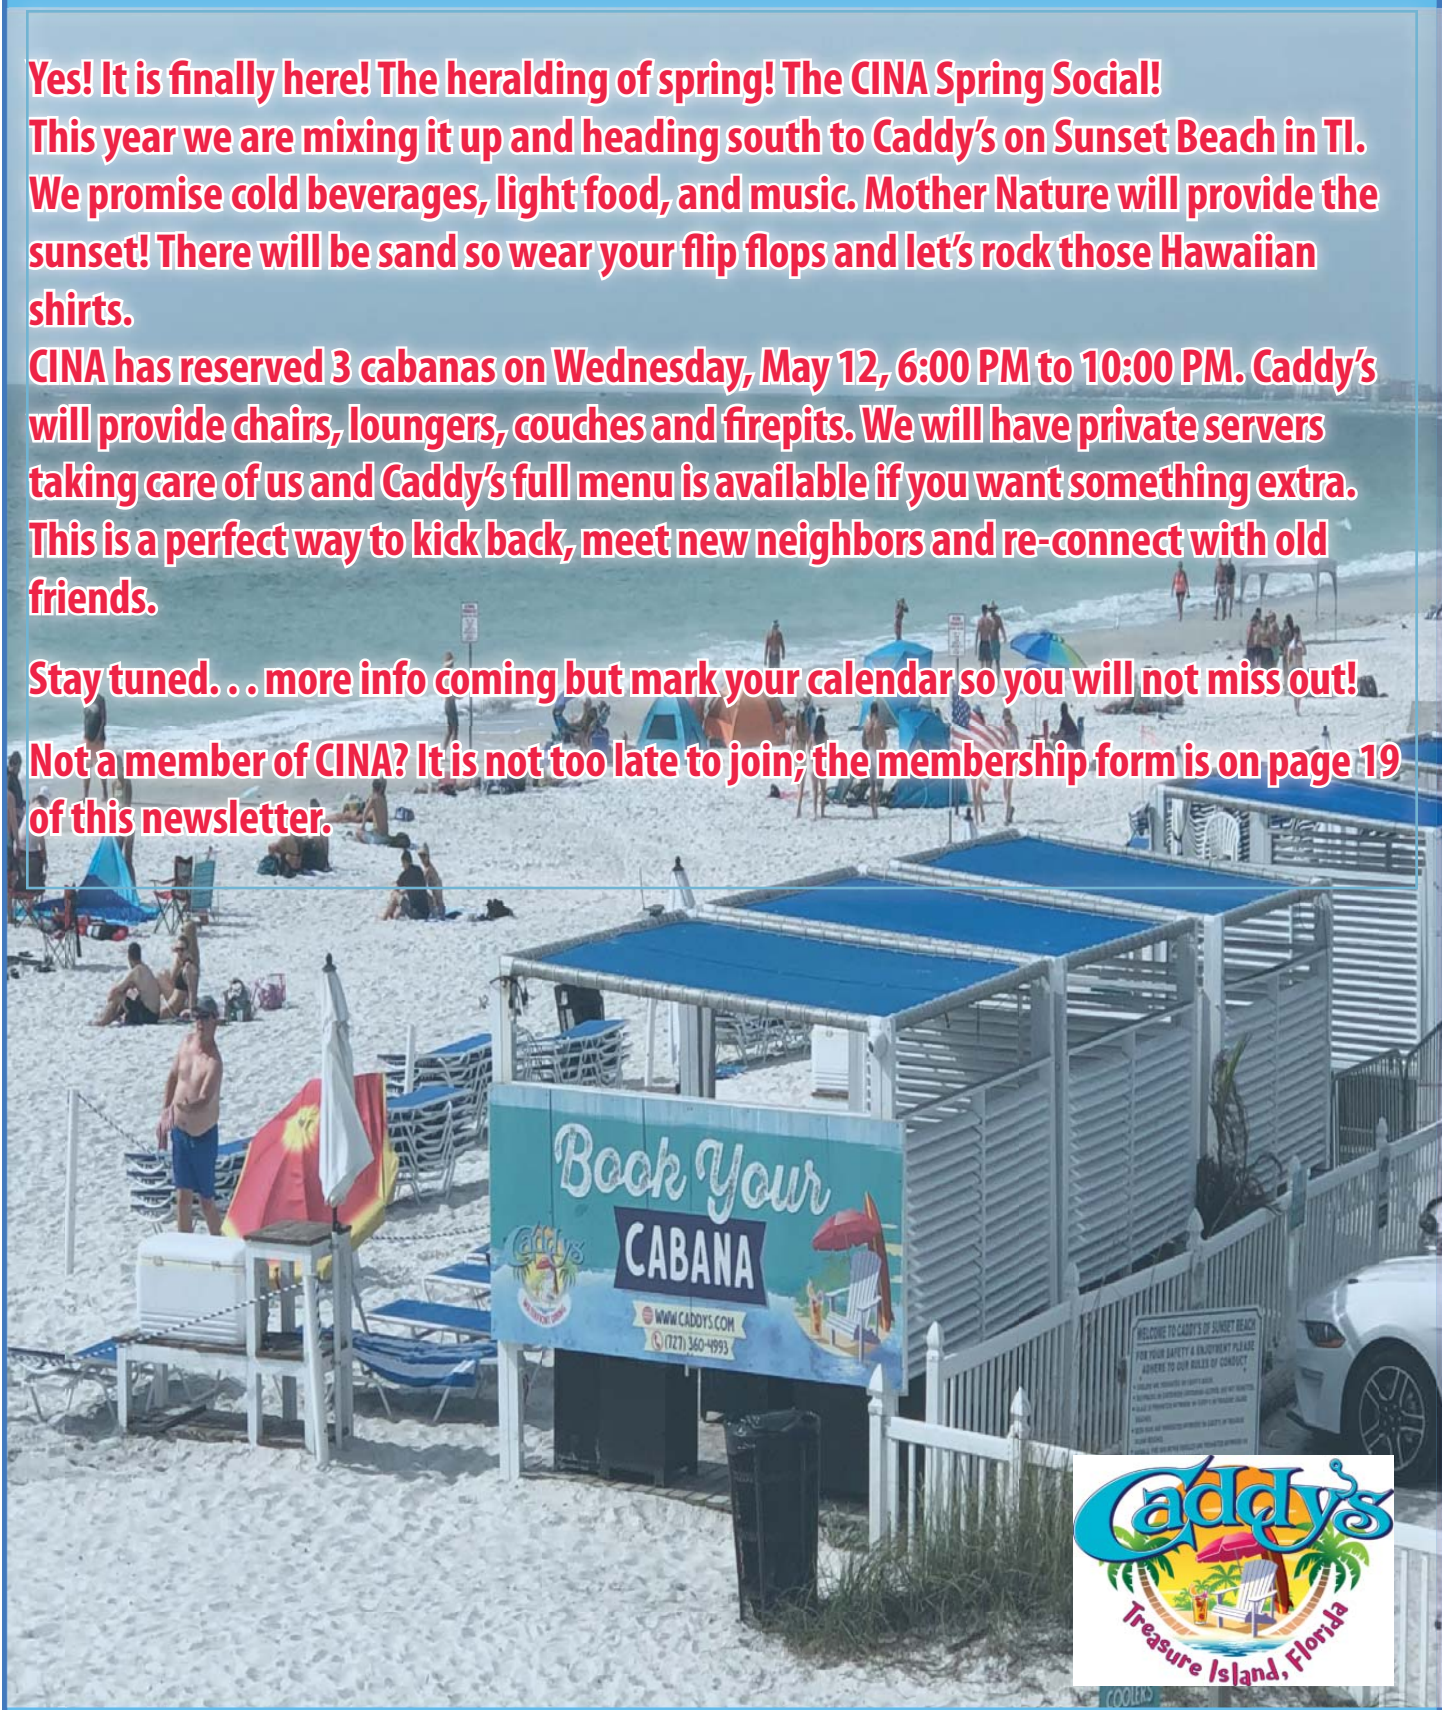

Sip, Socialize, Sand and Sunset - May 12th 6 to 10 PM

Yes! It is finally here! The heralding of spring! The CINA Spring Social! This year we are mixing it up and heading south to Caddy's on Sunset Beach in TI. We promise cold beverages, light food, and music. Mother Nature will provide the sunset! There will be sand so wear your flip flops and let's rock those Hawaiian shirts.

CINA has reserved 3 cabanas on Wednesday, May 12, 6:00 PM to 10:00 PM. Caddy's will provide chairs, loungers, couches and firepits. We will have private servers taking care of us and Caddy's full menu is available if you want something extra. This is a perfect way to kick back, meet new neighbors and re-connect with old friends.

Stay tuned. . . more info coming but mark your calendar so you will not miss out!

Not a member of CINA? It is not too late to join; the membership form is on page 19 of this newsletter.

SICK BIRD? HERE'S HOW TO HELP

by Deb Schum

Eight miles up the road from Causeway Isles is the Seaside Seabird Sanctuary (SSS), a 501c non-profit, that treats and rehabilitates about 2,500 sick and injured wild birds a year. Located on the beach in Indian Shores, SSS welcomes visitors to take a stroll through the 1.7-acre sanctuary which is home to nearly 100 permanently disabled birds which are on display in large aviaries. Some of the permanent residents include White Pelicans, Hawks, Owls, a Bald Eagle, and Oyster Catchers.

Named after the doctor who originally funded its construction, the Dr. Marie L. Far Avian Hospital is run by a team of dedicated and experienced staff and volunteers who diagnose and treat the injured birds that are admitted to the hospital each year. Like a human hospital it is equipped with emergency facilities, a surgical center, injury recovery areas and an outdoor wild bird recuperation and rehabilitation area. About 44.5% of admitted birds are successfully treated and released.

Although I have volunteered at the Sanctuary, I had a chance to test out their facilities for real when I came upon a juvenile Least Bittern with an injured wing (it appeared to have been hit by a car). I wrapped the bird in a towel and put it in my dog carrier to take it up to SSS. The Sanctuary was open when I arrived, and Chris Walls (Outdoor Avian Keeper) immediately took the bird into the hospital. If I had arrived after hours, I could have left the bird in the overnight drop-off. You can also call SSS injured bird rescue hotline (727.391.6211) and if possible, they will send someone to rescue the bird. I got a call later that afternoon letting me know that the bird had a fractured wing that could not be repaired. The good news is the bird died humanely and did not unduly suffer.

In addition to the birds on display (birds that can be released back into the wild are kept away from the public) the grounds are home to a countless number of wild birds that freely roam the Sanctuary and nest in the trees above. Due to this the Sanctuary is perfectly suited for bird watchers and photographers. There is an education center, observation tower, special events for kids, gift shop along with daily, weekly and monthly presentations. SSS also holds guided tours and special events such as photography classes, Easter egg hunts, Halloween costume contests, yoga classes and more. The Sanctuary is a must visit to learn more about the important work this organization does for our feathered friends.

SSS is located at 18328 Gulf Boulevard, Indian Shores and you can check them out at www.seasideseabirdsanctuary.org. You are at the right place when you see the giant pelican statue that overlooks Gulf Boulevard in front of the Sanctuary's main entrance. His name is Lucky and if you look closely you will see he has a hook in his mouth and a line wrapped around his injured left wing. Lucky landed at the right place!

CINA BOAT CLUB

Second Annual Boat Parade - Sunday April 18 at 2 pm

The Causeway Isles Neighborhood Association (CINA) Boat Club and Yacht Club Estates Boat Club are calling boaters! If you want to do something fun and enjoy a good boat parade you're in the right place. You can help bring joy to people on land by joining our parade. Then decide to decorate your boat and/or dress in costume in any style you like, Easter Style, Pirate, Red/White/Blue, etc! Blow your horn, toss candy to kids, or just putter and wave to the land lovers who will be on the docks cheering us on! We had 30+ boats at last year's event. Let's break that record.

Want to join in? Register your boat in the parade via: Capt. Bruce at CaptainBruce2015@gmail.com or call/text 727-417-4694 for all the details. Not a boater? Set your chair up on your sea wall or dock and make some noise to cheer the boaters on! Want to ride on a boat with a neighbor? Just ask and we will see if space permits..

Meet at the start area between 1:30-2pm. Kick off the parade at 2pm then travel around each canal in Causeway Isles & Yacht Club Estates. This is open to anyone with a boat, but you must register in advance of the parade.

Causeway Isles Second Annual Boat Parade

Sunday, April 18 @ 2pm

The LATEST NEWS on our TRAFFIC CALMING PLAN

Below is the latest information on the implementation schedule and timeline for the Mini -Traffic Circles project on 79th Street South. This was provided by Mr. Michael Fredricks, Neighborhood Transportation Manager and our city liaison for the CINA Traffic Calming Plan.

PROJECT SCHEDULE

- Planning Meetings with Association – Throughout 2018
- Advertised Public Meeting with Residents – January 29, 2019
- Petition Circulated to 79th Street Residents – February 2019
- Phase 1 – Mini Traffic Circles Installed – November 2020
- Phase 2 – Final Design - Spring 2021
- Phase 2 – Evaluation of Test Mini Traffic Circles - Summer 2021
- Phase 2 – Presentation of Analysis to Residents - Late Summer 2021
- Final Determination – Vote by residents Late Summer 2021 (YCE not voting, CI only)
- Construction of Permanent Mini Traffic Circles – Fall / Winter 2021
- If approved by 50% + 1 of those that vote

PROJECT MILESTONES

- Design of Phase 2 and Cost Effectiveness
- Evaluation and Analysis of Phase 2 once implemented
- Presentation to Residents the Results of Phase 2 Evaluation
- Final Determination by Residents of Causeway Isles to Construct by mail in ballot administered by the department

SUMMARY

The traffic circles will be modified to meet the final design changes and will be constructed over the next several months to better simulate the actual physical structures. Then after a test period, the residents will be asked to vote for final approval of the Plan. Also enclosed is a letter to a YCE neighbor from Mayor Kriseman, who wholeheartedly supports our efforts to resolve the problem.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF ST. PETERSBURG

RICK KRISEMAN, MAYOR

February 26, 2021

Thank you for contacting me with your traffic safety concerns associated with the test mini traffic circles on 79th Street in Causeway Isles.

I have reviewed your concerns with Transportation Department staff and can now provide details along with my opinion on the current project.

As far back as when I served on City Council and represented District One (which included Yacht Club Estates), there have been traffic safety issues along 79th Street. For many years now, both associations have worked with the City to develop ways to mitigate these issues and slow traffic down, such as speed feedback signs and police enforcement. Unfortunately, despite these efforts, speeding along 79th Street persists, and recent crashes have also occurred.

Accordingly, residents of Causeway Isle are now asking for something more significant than periodic patrols or slightly raised intersections. After reviewing options, the association ruled out measures like speed humps or stop signs as a solution, as they felt those measures were too aggressive.

Instead, they have settled on mini traffic circles, as the association felt that they only cause traffic to slow as they pass.

As a result of this selection, the mini traffic circles installed are currently under review by the City's department (first test phase), and both mini traffic circles have been designed by a professional engineer to both State and National standards, meaning that the size of the intersection, the turning movements for larger vehicles (including emergency vehicles), all were taken into consideration and addressed by the designer.

In a second phase, sidewalks are also being considered at these intersections as a result of the loss of the marked shoulder, so that pedestrians do not mix with traffic in the intersection, along with rubber bumps within the painted truck apron, which will better resemble the finished concrete curb detailed in the design. This second test phase is schedule for this Spring.

Once implemented, the City's traffic department will monitor conditions and gather additional data. This information will be made available to residents when making the final decision to proceed or not proceed with final implementation of more permanent circles.

We appreciate your comments and understand why you and others may not want to be inconvenienced when driving to and from your home. However, please understand that we place a high priority on safety, and when speeding is excessive, we must be responsive to neighborhood requests in order to maintain a high quality of life for our residents.

We will consider the concerns of all those who are affected but will always rely most heavily on data and on the collective opinion of the specific neighborhood in which the traffic calming features are being considered, even when those features also affect an adjacent neighborhood.

Thank you again for reaching out and I hope this responds to your concerns.

With Regards,

Rick Kriseman

Mayor

City of St. Petersburg

CINA NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH COMMITTEE

Kevin Spooner

Greetings from Causeway Blvd South. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to speak to and help my neighbors through this platform. By means of introductions, my name is Kevin Spooner, your new Neighborhood Watch team lead. My wife, Bonnie and I, are neighborhood residents for two years now and absolutely love this neighborhood. I am a retired Army Sergeant Major out of the U.S. Armies Asymmetric Warfare Group. Bonnie is a retired elementary educator.

Let's go back to last spring. I am sure you all remember many of you and many of your neighbors were having their vehicles either ransacked or stolen. In discussions with the SPPD, this type of criminal activity is cyclical and moves from neighborhood to neighborhood through out the year. It is generally young men looking for quick cash or a joy ride. The city has done a fantastic job using covert and overt means to catch these criminals. And through the SPPD efforts, our neighborhood has been spared a repeat of last Spring's criminal activity so far. However, we all need to stay vigilant and report any suspected activity to both the SPPD and to your neighborhood watch. What can you do to help? Glad you asked. Use the following steps as a guide to help ensure your family and your property stays crime free.

1. Present yourself as a hard target.
 - a. Lock your homes and your vehicles, always, but especially at night.
 - b. Remove valet keys from your console when not actively using them. Many people do not realize that they have valet keys. They are generally stored in the glove box and may be in your owner's manual. These keys will not open your vehicle door but they will start your car, thus refer to step 1.
 - c. Use motion detection lights that span the range of your yard to the street.
 - d. Mount inexpensive security cameras that cover your entrances as well as your vehicles. (I will help you set these up for free, you buy them, Ill set them up)
 - e. Mount these cameras in an overt manner so they can be seen by prospecting criminals.
 - f. Monitor your cameras and report any suspicious activity to the police.
2. Be a neighbor. Monitor your neighbor's property while they are away on vacation or out of town.
3. Become a member of the Neighborhood Watch.

If you follow these steps, Causeway Isles will be safer for it. Nothing will completely stop criminal activity, but with your help, we can minimize it. I am wanting to have at least one neighborhood watch member on every street both east and west of 79th street. I will run quarterly meetings at my home and provide food and beverages. If you are interested in becoming a member, please reach out to me at kspooner860@gmail.com.

CINA VEHICLE WINDOW DECALS

Bruce Erbeck

We have received the vehicle decals and many have been passed out to CINA membership! If you are not a CINA member and wish to join, it's as simple as filling out the application and making an annual donation as listed on page 19 of this newsletter.

You may recall the goal of the decals is to help recognize each other as we drive in and out of the neighborhood. If you have a second car, please let us know and we can get you an extra decal. Wouldn't it be great if Causeway Isles became known as "The Happiest Neighborhood in Pinellas"? We can do it, and it all starts with a simple wave.

Please display your window decal on the (INSIDE) driver's side of your windshield. Once you peel back the paper liner, it will reveal the adhesive and can easily be adhered to the inside of your windshield. You will have instant recognition in the neighborhood as a resident of Causeway Isles and will easily be able to spot other neighbors as they drive in and out of the neighborhood. Remember to GIVE A WAVE as we pass each other and let's help make this a great and friendly place to live.

Peel the liner back

Don't touch the sticky side

CINA NEIGHBORHOOD CLUBS, VOLUNTEERS, AND REAL ESTATE

Future Social Clubs

We want YOU to get some new CINA groups together!

This is an amazing neighborhood with fantastic people... we are active and fun! We just need a few volunteers to organize it. Step up and give it a try! Here are some suggested groups:

- Walking in the neighborhood or on the beach
- Paddleboarding
- Kayaking
- Bicycling or Electric Bicycling
- Mom's group or family club
- Pets
- Games and Cards

Send an email to admin@causewaylsles.com to get the ball rolling!
